

Handa Island

Volunteer Code of Conduct

Scottish
Wildlife Trust

What we expect from you:

- Act responsibly and sensitively towards the island's wildlife.
- Show respect towards other staff and volunteers and treat all with dignity.
- Contribute towards a friendly and constructive atmosphere in the bothy.
- Respect and treat the bothy with care.
- Understand that you are a representative of the Scottish Wildlife Trust and to be an asset to the work being carried out on the reserve.
- To act responsibly with regards to your own safety and the safety of others.
- Listen to and heed the advice given by the Ranger and their team.

What you can expect from us:

- To be treated fairly and with respect by others working, volunteering and living on the island.
- To be listened to and have your views taken into account when performing tasks.
- We will listen to and take seriously any grievances you may have.
- To work in a positive and friendly environment.
- To be able to approach the Ranger(s) or Reserves Manager regarding any issue, personal or otherwise in confidence at any time.

I confirm that I will abide by the above code of conduct.

Please sign and date on arrival.